Turquoise

No visitor to London should resist buying tweed, one of the most famous of British fabrics, but at Turquoise, it's never been showier or more glamorous. You'll discover, for example, a Rocco Barocco little brown tweed dress whose straps are trimmed with sparkling pink lace and diamante - a delicious alternative to the 'little black dress'. Or opt for a tweed suit and team it with a sparkling pink or gold lace camisole. For the more casual occasion, see Dolce and Gabbana tweed hacking jackets and team them with Roberto Cavalli jeans and t-shirts.

If you love fur, you'll find it full-length here in a white Versace coat or a Pellesimo model, as well as a detachable collar on a Roberto Cavalli jacket. When it comes to shining crystal jewellery, Swarovski has some of the best right here at Turquoise. Swarovski crystal has also even been used for heels and toes of some of the shoes and boots in Les Tropeziennes range. ■ 7 South Molton Street, W1. Tel: 020 7491 8771 and 36 Beauchamp Place, SW3. ## Nara

Shopping for clothes and accessories at Nara is better than any beauty treatment, for here, sisters Nada and Rula insist on a 'pamper-yourself' experience, happy to show you the latest collections and offering advice when required. Whether for day or evening needs, you'll find a stunning array of beautifully made clothes, including glamorous tops, skirts and dresses from France and Italy. If you just love leather and suede, Nara offers you stylish Italian coats, jackets and skirts - all at surprisingly affordable prices.

Nara also now has its own-label collection of trendy jeans and handbags in suede and glitter fabrics for added sparkle. Anyone in a party mood should also definitely look at Nara's selection of crystal jewellery - sensational! Nada and Rula willingly assist you to select a garment that's suitably casual, or made for a dressier occasion, as well as point out compatible accessories. Make Nara a one-stop shopping experience ■ 8 Beauchamp Place (first floor), Knightsbridge, London SW3 Tel: 020 7589 6212. Fax: 020 7589 9793

Dominique Petrone

The new Summer collection at Dominique Petrone has finally arrived consisting of light-weight wools, linens and cotton suits together with an exceptional range of shirts. Catering for all summer functions, holidays and business, the range and quality of this Italian menswear label is hard to beat. Their infamous double collar shirts have been adapted for warmer weather in a lighter fabric available in a wide range of colours. However, there is much more than just suits and shirts on offer.

The Summer collection incorporates a more casual look with t-shirts, chinos, linen trousers and knitwear, again featuring exceptional Italian quality and style. Accessories round off the look with butter soft leather driving shoes, woven leather or cotton belts and hand-finished ties. So whether you are travelling to the South of France this Summer or even the South of London, Dominique Petrone certainly has the best selection of menswear in town. ■ 9 Gee's Court, St. Christopher's Place, London W1U 1JH.
